Dear Mother
 I am so glad to hear that you are all well and happy. I hope that you will be able to visit me soon. I am waiting for you.

I am waiting for you.

Nancy I'll be right with you. I never forget you. You're really a lot of fun. I love you.
 I'll be right with you.

Nancy
 I don't begin to tell you what a wonderful time
 I have had with
 you. I am so glad

Nancy,

Sure have enjoyed knowing you all these years. Hope the world will smile on you and Curry. Please send me an announcement of the arrival of your first little mistake.
Be good - I'm praying that the Lord will bless you.

Nancy,

It seems impossible that our school days are over.
We have really had some good times together because you're such a swell

Dedication

we dedicate this 1954 pemican to those who have been the key influences in our lives all through the years—our teachers. with their help, we have risen from doubtful, uncertain primary students, to confident, intelligent seniors, with the ambition to strive for a place in this busy world. they have outlined for us a successful past and a promising future. so, to our teachers, who have so generously shared their knowledge, wisdom, and hours of hard work with us, we humbly dedicate this annual, for they truly hold the key to our future.

Foreword

this year the staff of the 1954 PEMICAN has chosen as its theme KEYS. we realize that our teachers hold the keys to our future. with these keys we seniors at h.p.h.s. are able to unlock doors to opportunities in every available field of education. we hope this book will hold memories of the treasures that have been unlocked in our days at school, and that it will always be a memento of our carefree days at high point high school.

DR. DEAN B. PRUETTE
Superintendent of High Point City Schools

MR. D. P. WHITLEY
Principal of High Point High School

Dr. Pruette, now in his second year as Superintendent of City Schools, is well known to the students because he was formerly principal of Junior High School. His friendly personality, sincere manner, and his interest in school affairs make him admired and respected by all.

Mr. Whitley will always be remembered by the students for his expert management of our school, his concern for the welfare of the students, and his helpfulness in making our high school years the best years of our lives.

Keepers of the Keys

Our capable deans are always ready with advice and guidance for those students who wish to consult with them during the course of the year. Who was absent out of the thirteen hundred enrollment yesterday? They will know, for their duty is checking the attendance every day.

The most important thing in a Senior's mind during his last year in high school is his future. Will he go to college? Take up his vocation? The main question is, "Just where do I go from here?" These questions are answered by our indispensable deans—Miss Anna Mendenhall and Mr. Ralph Vance.

MR. RALPH VANCE
Dean of Boys

MISS ANNA MENDENHALL
Dean of Girls

Assisted by her girls and by Bruce, Mrs. Johnsie Jackson keeps the office going with her usual skill and efficiency. No matter how busy she is with her numerous tasks, she always has a friendly smile and a cheery hello for everyone.

Mrs. Doris Teague keeps our files in order and aids Mrs. Jackson in the office. She is especially helpful in sending to colleges the applications and transcripts of seniors. When you consider how much work goes into the keeping of the files and into the sending of transcripts to the colleges, you will realize what a very important part she plays in our lives by keeping the office running smoothly.

WHEELS

Binding the ties between the school, the community, and industry is the school board. These High Point citizens are interested in a better education for young High Pointers. The school board consists of Mr. D. A. Rawley, Mrs. Blake Thompson, Mr. William A. Tomlinson, Mr. R. M. Campbell, and Mr. J. B. Phillips.

TO OUR FUTURE

Every student felt that he played an important role in the student government, as these "ding-dong dandies" Dean and David led us valiantly through "thick and thin." This is alliteration but not "illiteration," for through their "know-how," with the aid of the student adviser, Miss Louise Hunter, they helped polish the keys for a successful year.

The Polishers of the Keys

The Key That Opens the Door to Opportunity

MR. HARRY HENDRICK

The Senior Class, with its adviser, Mr. Harry Hendrick, and the Class officers, Barbara Ellington, secretary; Ronnie Brewer, vice-president; Jimmie Casey, president; Nancy Robinette, treasurer, locks behind it the door to its high school career, with the assurance that one brief glimpse through the keyhole will revive such delightful memories as the senior play, "Every Family Has One" . . . the Junior-Senior Prom, described with one word, "unforgettable" . . . the final social for the seniors, the Banquet; and, last of all, the feeling both of humility and of exultation as the day of graduation arrived to complete its room of memories.

In the sophisticated and distinguished atmosphere of Joe's Bar, HANNAH BARR and VERNON MARTIN display some of their apparel which helped them win the title of Best Dressed.

The flowers are put to shame by this Best Looking couple, FRAN MYERS and RAY HARRIS.

Music to match their personalities, the lilting strains of Spike Jones, appeals to RACHEL RICHARDSON and RONNIE BREWER, with the Best Personality.

"You don't need anything else; you're Best All Around," says Santa Claus in reply to the requests of JANE MARLETTE and JIMMIE CASEY.

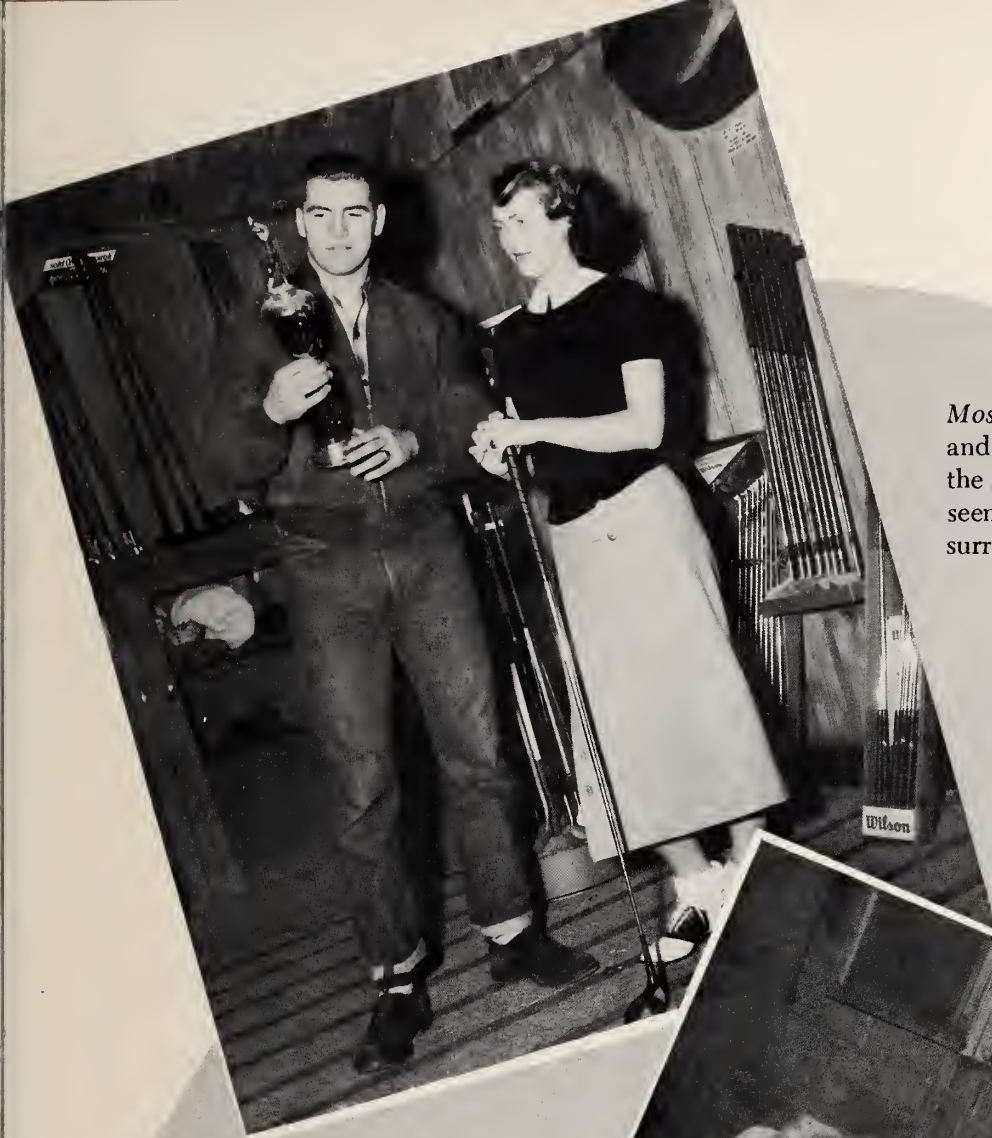

The cordial smiles of SARAH JOHNSON and EDDIE MARTIN, Friendliest, make the ordinary drugstore a "mann's" delight.

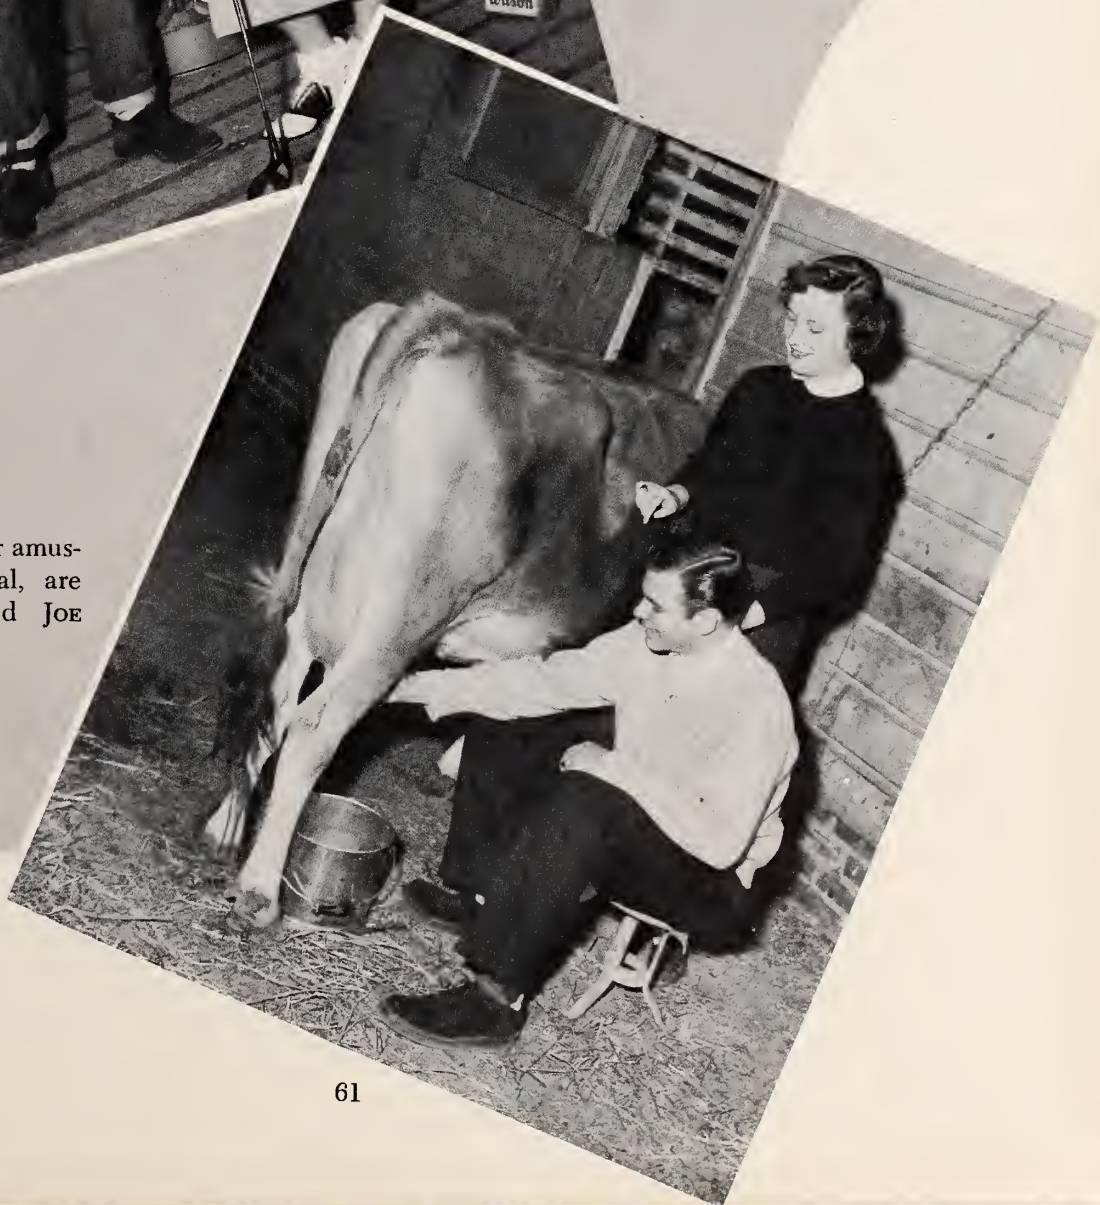

With all they under-take, PATTY DILLON and DAVID PANCOAST aim for success as the two who are Most Likely To Succeed.

Most Athletic SUSIE GRAY and DAVID FAGG, pros in the world of sports, are seen amidst their typical surroundings.

Pulling some of their amusing antics, as usual, are SYLVIA LESTER and JOE DEAN, Wittiest.

It Looks like love at first sight as Joy Martin displays that cute smile for Rickey Coffey. These are the mascots chosen for their talent by the Senior Class.

Leaders . . . Present and Future

These students were selected by the faculty for Who's Who in recognition of their keeping the high school in top working condition through their efforts in extra-curricular activities. These prominent members will find their names in the High School Register.

The Chain That Holds the Keys

MISS ELIZABETH LINDSAY

Realizing that good leadership is a necessity in carrying out smooth and well-organized class activities, the Juniors took great care in choosing the officers pictured above: Richard Mason, treasurer; Betty Adams, secretary; John Hale, president; Richard Hallman, vice-president. Each Junior was an important link in the chain, and, under Miss Elizabeth Lindsay's advice, strove for a shining year . . . The Junior Play, "The Trail of the Lonesome Pine" . . . the arrival of the class rings . . . the Junior-Senior prom . . . all are highlights which they will always remember of their Junior year. With these events behind them, the Juniors finished the welding of the chain, ready to assume the responsibility of Senior "keys."

The Key to Better Citizenship

MRS. FLORENCE SHAW

Enthusiasm was the key word in the sophomore's year. Under the very able counseling of their class adviser, Mrs. Florence Shaw, the sophomores proceeded with their many activities. With their money-making project, the magazine sale, behind them, they looked forward to the Sophomore Prom.

The Lock That Guards Our Future

MRS. ANNE S. BURTON

The initial year in a new school is always a period of adjustment for new students. The Freshman finds a new horizon open to him; a new responsibility faces him, making him realize that he is the lock which guards our future . . . Willing to guide the Freshman into their new horizon were the following leaders: left to right—treasurer, Jerry Lovelace; vice-president, Carolyn Casey; president, Betsy Davis; secretary, Dean Martin . . . After a year of “learning the ropes,” with the help of their adviser, Mrs. Anne S. Burton, this Freshman Class looks forward to the future as full-fledged members of High Point High School.

Activities

Consulting the adviser, Miss Louise Tapp, about plans for the '54 PEMICAN are: Shirley Miller, Business Manager; Kitty Marsh, Associate-Editor; and Jane Marlette, Editor-in-Chief.

For a change, George Haneycutt, our always busy photographer, is found in front of the camera with his constant companion.

Persistent Personalities

Typists Virginia Walser, Dot Lloyd, and Sylvia Fee take time off from their heavy job of typing copy to look over an old edition of the Pointer.

Cutlines . . . By-Lines . . . Layouts . . . Proofs

For the Five Star Final, the Pointer

Looking pleased over the first edition of our school newspaper, the Pointer, are, seated: Nancy Hill, editor-in-chief, and Miss Eleanor Young, adviser. Standing: Nancy Rabinette, business manager, and Mrs. Lyda P. Sawers, business adviser.

BETA CLUB ATTAINS RECORD-BREAKING MEMBERSHIP

The National Beta Club acts as an incentive to lower classmen to maintain a high scholastic average. The organization co-operated with the National Honor Society in presenting College Day, and as their money-raising project the Beta Club sold pennants to members of the student body. In April the National Beta Club convention met in Asheville. Delegates from all parts of the state met there to talk over problems and exchange ideas. Through the Beta Club Journal, a monthly publication, members learned of the activities of similar clubs all over the nation. In this school, seniors must have an average of ninety and juniors of ninety-two to be eligible for membership in the National Beta Club.

Character, Leadership, Scholarship, and Service—these are the four keys to the National Honor Society. After a service marked with beauty and simplicity, twelve seniors were inducted into the Honor Society. The officers are pictured to the left: Carolyn Roberts, treasurer; Tiny Neely, president; Jimmie Casey, vice-president; Sarah Johnson, secretary.

Having one of the highest honors bestowed upon them, the old and new members of the Society were determined to match the achievements of former years. Their first project was the sale of stationery, which added considerable revenue to their treasury. They joined forces with the Beta Club in sponsoring College Day. In the spring, the induction of an additional number of outstanding juniors was carried out with the usual impressive dignity. The presentation of the N.H.S. Service Award brought to a close the 1953-1954 activities of the organization.

STUDENTS OF DISTINCTION ACHIEVE HIGHEST HONORS

Between change of periods Nancy Cridlebaugh and Kitty Marsh consult Miss Maxalynn Mourane, N.H.S. adviser, concerning the sale of stationery.

Despite snow or bad weather, Key Clubber James Molposs can always be depended upon to raise the flag.

To develop initiative and leadership, to provide experience in living and working together, to serve the school and community, and to prepare for useful citizenship—these are the objectives of the Key Club. The weekly Thursday night meetings of the club furnish opportunities for developing leadership and a spirit of co-operative work. The yearly project and chief service to the school is the completing, editing, and publishing of the Key Club Directory. This year the Key Club also purchased a flag for the school and continued its morning “chore” of “raising the Colors.” At the football games the “Clubbers” are seen going through the stands selling programs, thus rendering service to the athletic department. The members ended a successful year with their annual Mother’s Day banquet.

Membership in Masque and Gavel is bestowed upon those students who have the desire to promote better speech activities in High Point High School. Under the able guidance of their leader, Miss Ruth Goodman, the Masque and Gavel organization worked eagerly and earnestly.

The slogan of Masque and Gavel, "Speech Through Use", is prominent in the daily activities of Masque and Gavel members. Among the various contributions of the members are devotional readings, radio work, and discussions in student council work. True to the theory that no organization is successful without capable leaders, the Masque and Gavel activities have been dependent upon the guidance of this year's officers, pictured at left are: Jane Marlette, Treasurer; Jerry Sowers, Sergeant-at-Arms; Nancy Criddlebaugh, President; Gail Armstrong, Vice-President; Kitty Marsh, Secretary.

Y-Teen Club presidents Nency McNeill, junior, and Linda Lewis, sophomore, were elected as leaders of their respective clubs.

The Y-Teens brought about a feeling of better friendship with their various helpful activities throughout the year. In November they prepared Thanksgiving baskets for needy families. During the Christmas season all clubs participated in a vesper service. During the year, dances and informal get-togethers provided fun and fellowship for all the girls.

Miss Nina Claiborne, Y-Teen director, aided the clubs with her helpfulness in attaining goals.

The Y's Way to Better Living

"To create, maintain, and extend throughout the home, school, and community, a high standard of Christian character." This, the motto of Hi-Y, constitutes the basis of the organization's varied activities. Mr. George W. Gillie, faculty adviser, and Mr. Jim Ensign, of the Y.M.C.A., assist the members in planning business sessions, social functions, and in securing speakers to appear at the meetings. The Hi-Y members acquire new knowledge of clean living, clean speech, clear thinking, and sound scholarship. Until this year the organization has consisted of senior boys only. Now, any junior or senior boy possessing Hi-Y qualifications is eligible for membership.

Mighty Monogram Men

Striving to develop their athletic abilities and to maintain a high standard of sportsmanship, the Monogram Club is made up of those H.P.H.S. boys who have earned a letter in one of the varsity sports or have managed a team. Talley Wright was elected President; Buddy Boyd, Vice President; and David Fagg, Secretary and Treasurer.

During basketball season the members helped to finance the activities of their club by selling candy at the home games. Under the direction of Coach Simcon, the Monogram Club had a very successful year.

Our band, with its high-stepping majorettes, its fancily-dressed drum major, and its faithful members keeping steady time, were on the football field for every game of the season. Clad in spanking new uniforms, the band delighted the spectators with a top-rate performance at every half-time.

Capably directed by Mr. David Carter, the band organized quickly with Charles Vaughn as president, Basil Freeman, vice president, Meryle Pope, secretary, Frank Collins, treasurer, and Sandy Mendenhall, sergeant-at-arms.

After a phenomenal change from marching to a concert band status, the members buckled down to grueling hours of practice.

THERE'LL BE A HOT TIME IN THE BAND ROOM TODAY

Looking on as Sam Garrard and Deanna Lewis, joint concert masters, go over an already familiar sheet of music are the members of the orchestra who had the honor of being High Point's representatives in the All-State Orchestra at Duke University this year. First row, left to right: Rachel Richardson, Mae Van Zett, Nancy Hill, Paul Moss, and Glorio Snatherly. Second row: Penny Hutchinson, Carolyn Kirkman, Jimmy Tedder, Ann Hicks, Betsy Rass Davis, and Barbara Cranford. Third row: Meryle Pape, Peggy Locke, Betsy Bryant, Gardan Steele, L. G. Wilson, Tammy Dale. Fourth row: Becki Blackwell, Rebecca Hammer, Marvin Williams, Betsy Burton, Shelby Jeon Grady, Bascam Redding, and Larry Ledbetter. Not pictured are Lawrence Brawn, Dean Mac Pruette, and Marilyn Pruette.

Our honor-winning orchestra was so well-liked when it played at High Point College and Appalachian State Teachers College that it has received invitations to play again for these schools this spring.

Under the direction of Miss Virginia Frank, the orchestra members have achieved such a high standard of excellence that in the forthcoming state contest at Woman's College this spring, they are privileged to enter the highest class of competition.

"Like father, like daughter." This altered version of an old saying is true of Mr. T. R. Hicks and his daughter, Ann. Mr. Hicks, a graduate of High Point High, was the first chair viola player back in 1933, a position which his daughter now holds in the same orchestra.

Tuned for Tip-Top Performances

Orchestra members are, first violins: Deanna Lewis, Sam Garrard, Paul Moss, Marilyn Pruette, Gloria Snottherly, Penny Hutchinson, Lawrence Brown, Carolyn Wallace, Frances Irwin, Carolyn Kirkman, Ken Briggs, Rachel Richardsan, and Jerry Hill. Second violins: Jimmy Teddar, Annette Newton, June Hall, Betsy Wardale, Sarah Montgomery, Dan Allen, Pat Davis, Donald Jacobs, Libby Nicholson, Ann Peace, Louise Luck, Rebecca Scism, Ronald Calhaun, David Mishoe. Cellos: Nancy Hill, Marvin Williams, Mae Van Zett, Bonnie Tilly, Becki Blackwell, Judie Mathews, Louise Boles, and Rebecca Hammer. Violas: Ann Hicks, Betsy Davis, Gail Sawyer, Barbara Cranford, and Jean Mercer. Bass: Dean Pruette, Betsy Burton, Shelby Jean Grady, Joyce Adams, Jean Harris, Nancy Moran, Jack Howard. Flutes: Betsy Bryant, David Pancaast, Mike Collins. Trumpets: Russel Larcam, Buddy Long. Oboe: Steve Burton. Percussion: Bascom Redding, Larry Ledbetter, and Jerry Ledbetter, and Jerry Barnes. Saxophone: Frank Collins.

In Room 214 at third period some strange but promisingly melodic sounds are heard. Under the expert guidance of Dr. Charles C. Taylor, the initial sounds are gradually turned into songs of beauty.

The choir displayed its talents in the "Lights of Christmas," assembly programs, performances for civic clubs and churches, as well as Commencement.

These members of the A Cappella Choir "say it with music." They are, first row, left to right: Carol Ann Briggs, Helen Lucas, Shirley Southern, Peggy Kepley, Martha Ann Wood, Gail Thrower, Abigail Lanier, Linda Groome, Judy Risch, Lucille Tawery, Nancy Robinette, Sylvia Boyd. Second row: Jeanette Darnell, Jane Marlette, Patty Dillon, Susie Gray, Sylvia Zimmerman, Carolyn Koonce, Nancy Deaton, Sylvia Jones, Sherry Curlee, Norma Dean Hill, Barbara Ellington, Barbara Kemp, Mary Ann Eller, Alma Yip. Third row: Sarah Johnson, Becky Hester, Betty Adams, Joyce Chapman, Marilyn Pruette, Watts Childress, Darlene Bullin, Polly Yow, Julie Wendler, Judie Callahan, Mary Wall, Shirley Miller, Sally Gluyas, Frances Irwin, Joanne Sowers, Marlene Stanley, and Dr. Taylor. Fourth row: Som Austin, Kenneth Green, T. R. Alexander, Bobby White, Jimmy Laine, Tommy Lewis, Charles Vaughn, Jan Nibbelink, Ernest Moore, L. G. Fifth row: Sam Garrard, Bobby Williams, Arnold Lawson, Jerry Kay, Jimmy Ashby, Dan Reid, Charles Huff, Richard Mason, Jimmie Casey, Aubrey Bowers, Jimmy Burgess, Bruce Clodfelter, Duane Best, John Hale, and Fletcher Cooper.

THESE PRETTY GIRLS SING OUT THE MELODIES

Pictured on these two pages are the members of the Girls' Chorus, dressed in their usual attire of dark skirts and white blouses or sweaters. The girls, directed by Miss Nancy Anne Staley, have been very active this year. They have sung at several assembly programs, and, along with the Boys' Chorus and the A Cappella Choir, gave an excellent Christmas program, "The Lights of Christmas." This program included several tableaux depicting choirs rendered sacred songs appropriate to the scenes.

This year the boys' chorus, girls' choruses, and the A Cappella Choir, with the aid of the orchestra and band, presented a Christmas program entitled "The Lights of Christmas." Tableaux, music, and readings were combined to portray the nativity scenes.

The Homemaking Way ... The F.H.A

These literary-minded girls who lead the Library Club are: Nancy Stockwell, reporter; Donrie Shepherd, vice-president; Mary Ann Lee, president; Dana Lee Wilkins, treasurer; Peggy Hayworth, secretary. Mrs. Nancy Poston, school librarian, is the adviser of the Library Club.

WRITIN,' READIN,' and RESEARCH . . . THE LIBRARY CLUB

LATIN, LEARNIN,' and LEADIN' . . . THE J. C. L.

This year the Junior Classical League had the honor of having one of their members elected president of the state J.C.L. organization, and another member elected secretary of the national J.C.L. They are, respectively, Barbara Cook and Alma Yip.

MANAGERS OF THE MICROPHONE

High Point is one of the few high schools in the state that can boast its own radio station. Station WHPS has Mrs. Eloise Hawk as its adviser. The programs are directed and carried out by approximately twenty of our students. Larry Sledge is the station's chief engineer, while Jimmie Casey is the head announcer.

The station is on the air Monday through Friday from nine a.m. until nine p.m., with a three-hour break at three p.m.

Other members of the staff, shown in the radio station, are, seated: Paul Fine and Shelby Jean Grady. Standing: H. J. York, Bob Blair, Bob Marsh, Max Parish and Ellen Foscue.

For experience in debating, public speaking, quick thinking, and impromptu speaking, opportunities are provided by the National Forensic League. Members from the local chapter attended the district student congress which met in Raleigh. In the limousine to the right are the officers of the Forensic League. The 1953 Black Bison football team had three strikes against them from the beginning of the season, as there had been no victories in High Point since 1951. However, Coaches Tony Simeon and Jim Hayworth had much to be proud of by the end of the season as the Bison chalked up an impressive slate of victories to tie with Greensboro for second place in the Western Conference.

There were 12 returning lettermen from the 1952 squad, and, along with the reserves and junior varsity from the previous year, the Bison produced excellent sportsmanship and teamwork, surpassing a weak passing attack with a mighty ground force and clever deception.

Opening their season in a road game with Reidsville, the Bison overcame their handicap of inexperience as they downed the Golden Lions by a one-touchdown margin. Spectators witnessed the first home win at Albion Millis Stadium since 1951 as they watched the Bison defeat the Gastonia Green Wave.

The Bison received their most severe defeat in a non-conference game at Durham with the Bulldogs, but came back triumphantly the following week to defeat the Burlington Bulldogs at home.

In Charlotte's Memorial Stadium, the Bison trampled the Wildcats by a hard-fought thirteen-point margin. Homecoming brought the Maroon Devils from Asheville to High Point, where they bowed to the Bison amid the excitement of the enormous homecoming crowd.

Unexpected snow postponed the long-awaited meeting with our arch-rivals, the Whirlies of Greensboro. This proved to be disastrous, for the following week the Bison unsuccessfully met the defending conference champions from R. J. Reynolds. Although the Bison were defeated by one touchdown, they displayed unequalled spirit and determination. This was at the same time the most exciting and the most disappointing game of the season.

The enthusiasm of the team and spectators was far below normal as the Bison finally met and were defeated by Greensboro's Whirlies. The final game was a disappointing conclusion to an otherwise successful season.

V. L. Hill and Donald Scalf hold an object which is very familiar to them—one of the less battered footballs. As managers of the football team they must take care of all the team's various equipment.

Coach Simeon seems to be dwarfed by our Co-Captains Harold Gill and Jimmy (Stretch) Burgess.

In the Basketball opener with Statesville, the Black Bison Cagers, coached by A. J. Simeon, showed their enthusiasm and scoring power by racing to a 20-point victory, led by co-captains Harold Gill and Jimmy "Stretch" Burgess. This offensive power was successful in marching over Hanes, Thomasville, and Salisbury, but was stopped by Asheboro in the team's first defeat of the season. The team snapped right back, however, to stop Reynolds in an overtime victory. The lack of defense was shown in the next two games when Charlotte Central and Asheville scored decisive wins over the Bison. After a win over Gastonia, the High Pointers again were the underdogs in the next two games, losing to Burlington, and, for the second time, to Charlotte. In the next contest, one of the most exciting games of the season, the Bison won over the Asheville Maroons.

Now, with a conference record of 4-4 and with hopes for a chance of qualifying for the AAA tournament, the Bison team put forth an all-out effort to keep in the running, but was unsuccessful for the better part of the remaining season. High Point was again topped by retaliating Burlington, Reynolds, and Gastonia, and by its most bitter rival, Greensboro which eked out on the Bison home court, a first win, and later, a second victory. A narrow win on the home court over Salisbury was the concluding triumph of the Bison Basketballers for the 1954 season.

Harold Gill, with a 15.3 average, and Jimmy Burgess, with 14.3, took honors for the team; Harold was All-Conference selection and Jimmy was chosen for the Kiwanis North Carolina All-Star team, which played the South Carolina Kiwanis team March 12.

"Shoot!" yells the crowd, as the tenseness of the moment is reflected in all their faces.

In wrestling, every move is important. The wrong stroke may, and often does, result in the loss of the match. David Fagg of High Point is shown planning carefully his method of breaking this hold.

Cutting Canvas Capers

The 1954 wrestling team, defending the State High School Championship, opened the 1954 season by defeating Statesville there. In their second match they defeated Salisbury. The boys who will be leading the way in this year's drive for the championship are Jim Boggs, David Fagg, Albert Gray, Bob Bayne, L. G. Wilson, Loy Kennedy, and Will Byrd.

Kings of Swat

The 1953 Black Bison baseball team, slow in starting their season, progressed rapidly under the coaching of Jim Hayworth, and by the end of the year were a well-knit unit. As usual, rain caused the postponement of many games and also interfered with the conditioning of the team at one of its most crucial moments, resulting in two wins and eight losses.

Leading hitters were Herman Bunch and Tommy Land, while Harold Blizzard took over the pitcher's mound. Harold Bull held his own on second base, while sophomore Buddy Boyd showed promise in the outfield.

The outlook for the future is promising, and there is hope for a prosperous season next year.

One of the leading hitters, Tommy Lond, shows how a bunt should be hit.

Fleet-Footed Fellows

The 1953 track team, handicapped by the lack of experience, still showed well during the season in the five matches in which they participated. Under the guidance of Coach Ray Correll the squad members, composed mainly of ninth and tenth graders, made their best showing of the year in defeating Greensboro during the second meet of the season. Co-captain Don Rickert was outstanding during the season in the 100 yard dash, while Co-captain Don Scalf showed excellent skill in the pole vault, the high jump and the broad jump. Other outstanding players were Jim Boggs, Sonny Butler, and Cornell Johnson.

The 1953 High Point High School golf team, under the leadership of Coach Simeon, battled through a rough season, winning three matches and losing eight. The golfers were victorious over Burlington, Charlotte Central, and Reynolds.

The golf team was made up of John Gerring, Coker, McCain, George Setzer, Charles Lucas, Jimmy Skeen, and Bill Bulla. Holding the Number One position on the team was John Gerring, who lost only one match all season.

Knights of the Net

Under the leadership of Coach Tony Simeon, the 1953 tennis team showed great skill in achieving a 7-3 won-lost record. They defeated Greensboro, Hanes, and Burlington twice each and Charlotte Central once. The three losses were to Reynolds twice and Charlotte once. The members of the golf team were Craig Kester, Joe Walser, Jack Kester, Jerry Sowers, Tommy McMahon, Ed Jordan, and Larry Grissett. Leading the team were Jerry Sowers who lost only one match, and Joe Walser who lost only two. In 1954 the tennis team will be rebuilding with only two experienced players, Edward Jordan and Jerry Sowers, back with the team.

About to make a big splash are the members of the relay team, Larkin Kirkman, Harald McKee, Bill Howard, and Sandy Mendenhall.

AQUAMEN SPLASHED TOWARDS GREATER SKILL

The 1954 swimming team in this its second season, is hoping to better its last year's record of three wins and five losses. Under the leadership of captain Larkin Kirkman, the twelve boys who make up the team have battled throughout the season. The bright spot about the swimming team is that there is only one senior; therefore next year's team will have the benefit of experience. This year's schedule includes eight dual matches and three championship meets.

The cheerleaders seem to be getting this pep rally off with a bang. Here they are doing a new yell for the students, stepping to the tune of "Bleachers' Boogie." There was good response at all the pep rallies, which showed that the students really wanted the Big Black Bison to bring home the victories.

SCHOOL "PEPTOMISTS" KEEP OUR SPIRITS HIGH

High Point High School's Girls' Athletic Association has won state-wide acclaim, not only for producing winning competitive teams, but also for promoting good sportsmanship. The climax of the local club's activities came in April of 1953, when they won top honors in State Sports Day for the third consecutive year. This feat entitled the local organization to keep the state trophy permanently.

The chief objectives of the G.A.A. are to build healthy bodies and alert minds; and, through athletics, to encourage high moral character. Many laborious hours are spent in developing skill and in enjoying athletic competition. The cheerful atmosphere has done much towards establishing friendships among these sports-minded lasses. Under the capable guidance of Mrs. Mary Alice Palmer, the girls have found a truer meaning of individual sportsmanship and school spirit.

If anyone ever deserved a medal for bravery, certainly Lieutenant J. Frank Shields deserves one. In addition to many other duties on the police force, Lt. Shields faces the "elements" and scores of students in regular six-weeks' training periods. The students are enrolled in driver training from study halls. These future drivers are instructed in both classroom and road work. Several new pieces of equipment have recently been added for classroom instruction.

Each time a "Ford" appears on the market, the Rotary Club provides the school with a new model, specially equipped for practice driving.

Another group of loyal and indispensable helpers in the cafeteria are the girls who "dish it up." Empty dishes don't look very appetizing, but after these girls fill the dishes to overflowing it's a different story. HPHS is certainly lucky to be able to boast such a wonderful kitchen staff. Beaming over the freshly prepared salads you see Patsy Ramseur, Annie Baldwin, Isabel White, and James Bastic.

Here are three of the people who perform such a grand job for both students and teachers. To you, Edmanias Tarrence, Albert Graves, Essie May LeGrant, and all who labor for the cleanliness of our school, we say thanks for a job well done.

Fran Myers, High Point High School's 1953 Homecoming Queen.

Blessed with fair weather the ingenious creators of the Homecoming Parade were able to produce floats that drew tremendous applause from both participants and spectators. Themes of the floats were varied, with decorations ranging from popular songs such as "Dragnet", left, to "Operation Victory", right. While a majority of the students decorated floats on the athletic field, the cheerleaders worked diligently at the stadium. The results of their efforts showed up favorably in the decorations on the fences and goalposts at the game.

After spending the day embellishing floats with "Beat Asheville," the student body turned out "en masse" to see Fran Myers (escorted by Norman Zimmerman) crowned Homecoming Queen by Mayor George Cavington, and to see their dream of "Beat Asheville" come true.

OUR STAGE BECOMES THE "GREAT WHITE WAY"

For many hard working students the "Great White Way" became a vivid reality. It was a revelation to many to find such rich and varied talent as was demonstrated in the Talent Show of 1953. The goosepimple was happily applied, and under the sponsorship of the Student Council, the cost went on to prove, "There's no business like show business."

Appreciation

The finishing touches are being made on our "Goal," as we affectionately call our book; and to our surprise, we can all look back on the many hours of hard work as pleasant memories.

As we remember all who have had a vital part in the formation of the PEMICAN, most prominent in our minds is Miss Louise Tapp, our adviser. Without her unceasing guidance and her devotion of time and energy, we could not have completed this book.

Mr. Whitley and the faculty members little realize how valuable their co-operation had been to us. To them we offer our deepest gratitude.

Each member of our wonderful staff has been ever ready to do his job expertly. To Becky Hester, Jimmie Casey, Barbara Cook, and Irene Whitley, who produced endless pages of copy . . . to Patty Dillon and Pat Russell, our excellent typists, who could always be counted on to transform our illegible copy into neatly type-written sheets . . . to Carolyn Roberts, Art Editor; and Loui Cox, Assistant Art Editor, who, besides drawing lay-outs, were ever ready to do any task . . . to Jerry Marks, Martha Packer, and Ruby Kirkman for their well-written and accurate sports copy . . . to Nancy Criddlebaugh, Senior Statistician; and her assistant, Barbara Byrum, to whom fell the task of compiling the activities of all the seniors through the years . . . and to Virginia Cox who identified endless numbers of photographs . . . to all of you, we say thanks.

Through the tireless efforts of our business staff members who have spent long hours selling advertising to local merchants, our dream of this annual has become a reality. To them, Eddie Martin, Sarah Johnson, Hannah Barr, Sarah Jane Wall, Eddie Smothers, Barbara Wilson, Marjorie Boyles, Sandra Hamby, Buddy Boyd, Arlen Yokley, Frances Blair, Pat Tyson, Judy Rockett, and Sonny Butler, we give our heart-felt thanks.

Special thanks go to our photographer, George Honeycutt and his assistants, Norman Samet and Sandy Mendenhall, whose loyalty to the job has enabled us to have many wonderful pictures, and to Mr. Virgil Renfro who has made many trips to High Point in order to guide us in the planning of this book.

Thank you from the bottom of our hearts!

Nancy,

You're really had some good times together even though it hasn't been recently. I will always remember your and Curry's jokes! (all in one string) And when you got married come to see me and don't forget to see me and invite to the frat-tining. Thanks for the help in bookkeeping. It's really a wonder we aren't crazy, but just think we'll soon be out. See you at the lake this summer.

Love Always,
Carolyn Roberts

Nancy, It's been a long time hasn't it? Miss Carmichael's first grade it but a memory. The Easter egg hunt is still a fainter memory. Remember the Pajama parties on Rockland farm. The way it happened that my mother and your mother knew each other so good. Remember how we use to lie awake all night & talk about our troubles. I have fried eggs tasted good & those in the man didn't they? All these and many more are ones I will never forget! Good Luck, Nancy and I hope we can keep the same friendship in our married life. Always,
Rogers

Dear Nancy.

Nancy,

It doesn't seem possible, that we have completed a whole year, with no more than we have learned. I guess what others don't know won't hurt them.

You'll never know how much I have enjoyed being your friend and classmate.

Nancy, may I be one of the many to wish you and Curry success and happiness throughout the years.

Let's not let our friendship stop on June 7, 1954. I will continue to remember the rough and rugged days that we have spent in bookkeeping. Thank goodness we held our temper.

As Miss Nicol and Mr. Hendrick said "Success comes to capable people" — I'm sure you fill those shoes.

You are a very likeable and understanding person.

Believe me I have been feeling sorry for you every 2nd period this year. It wasn't too bad though — was it!

I guess Sylvia will be the one of us that will be "dumb" ^{has} enough to go to college.

I'm so glad you have a good job and a good man — what more do you need to be happy.

May success, happiness, luck and everything come your way.

Love,

Glenda Holland

Don't think ~~it~~ we will make again wake up in the middle of the night saying "out, out, brief candle" and whatever - but we have to come to school with knots in our stomachs but all - in - all we have had fun.

(2) yes, I wish hope you have all the luck in the world. You are a real cute and real sweet girl.
